

Social Computing

2023-2024 Catalog

CIS 517 - Social Computing

Admission to the MS in CSIS program. (4)

Study of large-scale social information systems. Online behaviors and structural complexities on different social computing platforms. Theories and principles behind technology diffusion into society. Socio-technical design of technologies for online communication and computer-supported collaborative work. Not open to students with credit for CIS 417. Graded ABCDE

---